

LICENSED, FOR WHAT?
Licensed—to make the strong man weak;
Licensed—to lay the wise man low;
Licensed—to woe the fond heart to break;
And make the children's tears to flow.
Licensed—to do thy neighbor harm;
Licensed—to kindle hatred and strife;
Licensed—to marry the widow's wain;
Licensed—to whet the murderer's knife.
Licensed—thy neighbor's purse to drain;
And rob him of his very last;
Licensed—to lead his favored brain
Till madness crows thy work at last.
Licensed—like spider for a fly,
To spread thy nets for man thy prey;
To mock his wail and woe;
Then cast the worthless man away.
Licensed—where peace and quiet dwell,
To bring disease and want and woe;
Licensed—to make this world a hell,
And fit man for a hell below.

The Chronicle for 1874.
ADDITIONAL INDUCEMENTS.

The Chronicle and Louisville Courier-Journal for $3.25.

Life-size Pictures, painted and Framed by McCormac, offered as Premiums for Clubs.

Our first proposition is to furnish our paper and the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal to advance paying subscribers, for $3.25. This proposition includes old subscribers who pay all arrearages and then in advance for twelve months from that date.

Remember if you club with the CHRONICLE and COURIER-JOURNAL prior to Jan. 1, 1874, you have a chance to draw one of the handsome premiums offered by the COURIER.

All new subscribers who will pay $4.00 in advance will receive the CHRONICLE for one year, and one of McCormac's whole-size Rembrandt Pictures, beautifully framed and warranted to give satisfaction. Old subscribers who will pay all arrearages to date and then pay $4.00 in advance, will be entitled to the same.

These pictures retail at $5.00, and are worth the money, but the arrangement we have entered into enables us to furnish the picture and the paper for $4.00.

By our arrangement with Mr. McCormac, we are enabled to offer to any one sending us ten names and twenty dollars in money, either a porcelain picture, worth $5.00, or a whole-size Rembrandt, $5.00.

If ten names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandts and the getter up of the club to the choice of the Rembrandt or the Porcelain Picture.

To any one sending us forty names and eighty dollars, we will give a life-size picture—India Ink—worth $35.00.

If forty names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandts, and the getter up of the club to the life-size India Ink Picture.

For fifty names and one hundred dollars, we will furnish a life-size picture, painted in colors—worth $50.00.

If fifty names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandts, and the getter up of the club to the life-size picture painted in colors.

Those getting up clubs will get the same premiums as above by sending in lists composed of both $2.00 and $4.00 subscribers—those paying $4.00 receiving both paper and picture, those paying $2.00 receiving the paper only.

Parties entitled to these Premium Pictures can have their own likeness taken, or that of any member of their family.

All of the above mentioned pictures will be framed in elegant style and furnished complete.

This offer is open for all clubs gotten up any time between now and the 1st of January, 1875.

In order to get our subscription list paid up in advance, we will give those getting up clubs the privilege of sending the names of old subscribers when such subscribers will pay all arrearages to date, and then pay two dollars in advance.

The pictures we offer will be gotten up in McCormac's best style—and all know he cannot be excelled.

Farmers Think and Act.
At no time in the past have the farmers ever shown a stronger disposition to think, and stronger determination to act. We can but hail these as signs ominous for good. They have been too long allowing others to think and act for them. Now we have cause to look for better results from all departments of the industrial pursuits; for just in proportion as men reason, think and act for themselves, is their progress; and progress is indispensable to success in agriculture. We hope the good work will still advance, and every man and woman in the country shall catch the true spirit, and win success and prosperity.

Coffee Crop in Ceylon.
The Ceylon Observer reports that in all the older districts of that island the coffee crop will be very short this year. In districts where the rule has been 10 to 12 cwt. per acre, the yield this year will not be over 1 to 2 cwt. per acre. But while on the plantations generally the crop will approach a failure, "the native gardens promise a full yield." In the Matella districts the native coffee (last year supposed to be dying out from leaf-disease) is in splendid order and bearing heavily. Scarcely a trace of leaf-disease is to be seen this season on places that but a year ago were covered with it.

CHAMBERLAIN is a valuable internal palliative in dyspepsia, and in many of the disorders affecting the stomach and bowels. Taken in doses of a tablespoonful night and morning, it is an almost infallible corrective of costive habits. Mixed with softening poultices, it is cleansing, soothing, and healing to the anal source. An occasional dose of the powder produces a favorable improvement in salivary or tawny complexion.

BROILER-PROOF SCREW FOR LOCKS—This is a right hand wooden thread at the head end, and a smaller left hand iron thread on the other end, or reverse, the latter being supplied with a nut. An effort to remove it from one side by unscrewing at the head only tightens the nut, while an attempt to drive out the screw on the other side, after taking off the nut, is resisted by the wooden thread.

A MERCHANT who should sell his sign-board and attempt to carry on business without one, because money is scarce, would be content with little better than insane. Those who stop advertising for the same reason are equally foolish. If card-makers of the country are waiting to hear who will sell cheapest those articles of comfort and necessity which even the poorest laborer cannot do without.

MANHOOD; HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just published, new edition of Dr. Caldwell's Celebrated Essay on the root cause of all diseases, viz. the loss of vitality or Seminal Weakness. Involuntary Seminal Losses, Nervous, Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Impediments to Marriage, etc., also, CONSUMPTION, Erysipelas and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or over-extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may reap himself cheaply, permanently and healthfully.

This treatise should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent enclosed, in plain envelope, with a full and complete description of the disease, and an address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps, to the Publishers,
